The Club Interviews Candidates for Non-Partisan Offices

The Club will be interviewing candidates for non-partisan judicial and non-judicial offices in early August (first 2 weeks) so that it can prepare to publish its "Slate Card" for November 2020. If you are a candidate who wants to be interviewed by the Club, or IF YOU WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE INTERVIEW PROCESS, please email us at president@nevadarepublicanclub.com. We will be distributing our cards throughout Clark County and through other publications. We are looking for volunteers to help us distribute the "Slate Cards" so please help us by emailing Frank Santora at fsantora48@gmail.com.

Interested in being a Board Member?

Due to the untimely passing of Dwight Mazzone, we find ourselves with a Board vacancy. We are looking for a Club member who is interested in being more active with the Club's social and volunteer activities, and who can spend about 1-2 hours a week helping the Board accomplish its objectives. If you are interested in being a board member, email your picture and a short resume no later than August 5, 2020 to Pauline Lee at president@nevadarepublicanclub.com

Remembering Dwight...

Donuts for Dwight

On Saturday, July 18 at 8:30 am at Centennial Hills Park, the Nevada Republican Club held a Memorial Service for our longtime board member, friend, colleague, former CCRP Chairman and Navy veteran Dwight Mazzone. Along with the Navy Hymn, the Navy Song, a recorded 21-gun salute, the playing of Taps by T.A.P.P.S., and the presentation of the U.S. Flag to Dwight's family, the Club bid a fond farewell to Dwight and hosted an informal reception for Dwight's friends and family members. To our old captain, we wish him "fair winds and following seas." More information about Dwight's legacy can be found on our website at <https://nevadarepublicanclub.com/our-board/>

Many thanks go to the following people who helped with this event: Pauline Lee, Mike Colian, David Gibbs, Bob Soucy, Cindy Parker, Sherry Rickard, Stephan Sedlmeyer, John Moore, David Tilem, Ron Solomon, Pastor Carl Fogg, Lee & Michelle Mueller, Byron Brooks, Nikkie Mazzone, grandson Cain and all of Dwight's friends.
